

Long Term Investment and Reindustrialisation Intergroup

WHAT LONG-TERM INVESTMENTS FOR THE EUROPE OF TOMORROW ?

November 7, 2018 15:00 – 17:30
European Parliament – Room JAN 4Q1

Biography of the speakers

Dominique RIQUET – Member of the European Parliament, Chairman of the Long-Term Investment Intergroup

Elected at the European Parliament in 2014 for a second mandate, Dominique Riquet is the first Vice-Chair of the transport and tourism committee and a member of the industry, research and energy committee. As a member of ALDE (Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe) within the European Parliament, he got elected President of the ALDE French delegation in 2017.

Particularly involved in infrastructure financing, he was rapporteur on the Connecting Europe Facility as well as for opinion on the European Fund for Strategic Investments ("Juncker Plan"). In the meantime, he has become the founder and chairman of the intergroup on long-term investment and reindustrialisation (#Invest4Future). Prior to that, he was Regional Councillor for the Nord Pas-de-Calais region (1992-2009) and he also served for ten years as the mayor of Valenciennes (2002-2012) following Jean-Louis Borloo.

Born in 1946, Dominique Riquet holds a degree in general medicine and a degree in urological surgery.

Kerstin JORNA - Deputy Director-General, DG Ecfm, European Commission

Kerstin Jorna is a German national and a civil servant at the European Commission where she has held various positions, amongst others as Head of Cabinet of several Commissioners and different Director posts in the areas of Intellectual Property, Innovation and Standards, Single Market Policy, Regulation and Implementation. Since December 2016 she is Deputy Director General in the Economic and Financial Affairs general directorate. Her areas of responsibility include, amongst others, macroeconomic surveillance of EU Member States, structural reforms, finance matters including the European Investment Plan and coordination with international financial institutions.

Mrs. Jorna is the Commission nominated Board Member at the European Investment Bank.

Gérard de la Martinière - Rapporteur of the French Task Force on Long term investment of the Paris Financial Center

After various positions in the Ministry of Finance from 1969 to 1984, including notably the Directorate of the Public Accountancy, Mr Gerard de la Martinière was Secretary General of the French Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission des Opérations de Bourse”, the regulator of financial markets in France) from 1984 to 1986.

From 1988 to 1989 he was General manager of the SBF-Bourse de Paris. He joined AXA in 1989 and was director-general for finances, control and strategy, and a member of the direction board (directoire) from 1997 to 2003. From 2003 to 2008 Mr. de La Martinière has been the Chairman of the French Federation of Insurance Companies (“Fédération Française des Sociétés d'Assurances”) and served as President of the European Insurance Committee (2004-2008).

M. de la Martinière is a director of Air Liquide and Schneider Electric. He is a graduate of École polytechnique (X1963) and Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA).

Laurent Zylberberg – Chairman, European Long-Term Investors Association (ELTI)

Laurent Zylberberg is Chairman of the European Long-Term Investors Association (ELTI) since 2015 and Director of Institutional, International and European Relations for the Caisse des Dépôts Group since 2014. Laurent Zylberberg was a political adviser for various French Ministers (Home office, Defence, Prime Minister’s office, Social affairs) from 1989 to 1993 and taught at the Sorbonne University in political science and public law. He was then Social Affairs Counsellor at the French Embassy in London until 1996 and then moved to Brussels to head the European’s office of the lobbying company “Euroconsultants”. Back to Paris in 1998, he joined France Telecom Group as marketing director for public services, then director for parliamentary affairs. He then became Employee Relations Directors in 2005, first at international level then for the whole Orange Group. In 2011, he was appointed General Manager for Orange Vietnam and came back in France in 2013 when he became Group Chief Compliance Officer. Laurent Zylberberg holds a PhD (1992) in sociology and political science about the history of urbanism in Paris’ region.

Jung Lichtenberger, Deputy Head of Unit Capital Markets Union, DG Fisma, European Commission

Jung Lichtenberger is Deputy Head of Unit « Capital Markets Union » at the Directorate General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union. Prior to that, he worked as an economist for the “Insurance and Pensions Unit” of former Directorate General Internal Market and Services. He led the pensions team of the Unit, responsible for the Directive on Institutions for Occupational Retirement Provision (IORP 2) proposed by the European Commission in March 2014 and for the new initiative to create a Single Market for personal pension schemes.

He co-drafted the Green Paper on pensions in 2010 and the White Paper on pensions in 2012. Before joining the European Commission, he worked for more than 7 years at the European Central Bank in Frankfurt in the area of financial market analysis and monetary policy. He studied economics and finance in the UK and obtained a Master of Business Administration (MBA) in France.

Benoit de La Chapelle Bizot - Deputy Managing Director of the French Banking Federation

Benoit de La Chapelle Bizot is Deputy Managing Director of the French Banking Federation since November 2014, in charge of the Banking and Financial Activities Department, Europe and International.

Prior to that, he was Minister Counsellor for Financial Affairs at France's Permanent Representation to the European Union (2009 – 2014). In 2009, he was Advisor to the Chairman of the French Financial Markets Authority. He was also Deputy Chief-of-Staff of the French Secretary of State for European Affairs, Jean-Pierre Jouyet, in charge of economic and financial issues, energy and climate issues on behalf of the Secretary of State (2008).

From 2001 to 2008, Benoit de La Chapelle Bizot held several positions at the Ministry of the Economy, Finance, and Industry such as Project Director and Coordinator of the French presidency of the European Union for the Ministry of the Economy, Finances, and Employment (2008), Head of the bureau of coordination and European strategy at the Treasury and Economic Policy department (2005 – 2008), Head of the bureau of banking and monetary affairs at the French Treasury (2002 – 2005), Deputy Head of the bureau of banking and monetary affairs, in charge of accounting and prudential issues (2001 – 2002).

Nicolas Jeanmart - Head of personal insurance, general insurance & macroeconomics, Insurance Europe

As head of Insurance Europe's personal insurance, general insurance and macroeconomics department, Nicolas Jeanmart contributes to the global and European debates affecting the non-life and life insurance sectors. He is also involved in the discussions on financial stability, with a particular focus on the question of systemic risk in insurance.

Prior to joining Insurance Europe in November 2010, Nicolas worked for the European Savings Banks Group (ESBG), where he held various positions, culminating in four years as head of the banking supervision and economic affairs department. This position entailed notably the responsibility for representing the interests of Europe's savings and retail banks in the discussions on global bank capital requirements frameworks (Basel II and Basel III). During his time at the ESBG, he also acted as the secretariat for various working groups and committees of the European Banking Industry Committee, the platform representing the entire European banking industry. In his earlier career he provided consultancy and training services, primarily to the financial sector, in Belgium and Luxembourg. Nicolas is a Belgian/French national. He holds a master's degree in business engineering, as well as degrees in European integration and development and in computer sciences.

Flavia Micilotta - Executive Director, Eurosif

Flavia is Executive Director at Eurosif, the pan-European sustainable and responsible investment (SRI) membership organisation whose mission is to promote sustainability through European financial markets with a membership network reaching €15 trillion in total assets. As a member of the High-Level Group on Sustainable Finance set up by the European Commission, Flavia helped crafting a blueprint for sustainable finance as part of the Capital Markets Union. Flavia has over 17 years' experience in responsible business management and responsible investments.

As a sustainability consultant and qualified environmental auditor at EY and Deloitte, she assisted companies embed sustainability in their business models and go beyond the remits of social and environmental compliance. Focused on issues ranging from climate change and adaptation, to supply chain management and responsible investments, Flavia worked with several European banks and asset managers to help them streamline their Responsible Investment approach. A founding member of the UN Global Compact in Belgium, Flavia has developed much of her career working with companies to improve their transparency and accountability through material and forward-looking sustainability reporting. Currently, Flavia serves as member of the Occupational Pension Stakeholder Group at EIOPA, to continue advising regulators on how to best carry out their mandate in view of the developments around sustainable finance and responsible investing.

Sébastien Raspiller - Head of the “Financing of the Economy” Department, French Treasury

Sébastien was previously head of the Insurance Markets and Products Unit (2009-2012) and of the Corporate Financing Unit at the Directorate-General of the Treasury (2012-2013), where he also served as General Secretary of the Interministerial Committee for Industrial Restructuring. He was appointed deputy assistant secretary in 2013 (until 2018), in charge of Financial Markets and Corporate Financing. He graduated in 1997 from Ecole Polytechnique.

Lieve Wierinck – Member of the European Parliament

Lieve Wierinck is a Flemish politician for the liberal Open VLD party. Mrs. Wierinck holds a pharmaceutical degree from the VUB (Vrije Universiteit Brussel). In addition, she obtained a Post-graduate degree of Pharmaceutical management in 2006 at the University of Hasselt. In line with her academic background, she owned and managed a pharmacy for nearly 30 years. Before joining the European Parliament, Lieve was leader of the party fraction in Zaventem, followed by her twelve-year presidency of the OCMW (Public Centre for Social Welfare), where she managed a staff of a 150 people. She combined this with her obligations as a fulltime member of the City Council of Zaventem.

From December 2011 until June 2014, she was a member of the Belgian Federal Parliament, where she was a member of the Committee for Public Health, Environment and Social Renewal, and of the Advisory Committee on Societal Emancipation.

In May 2016, Lieve replaced Mr De Backer as a Member of the European Parliament, where she is a full member of the Industry, Technology, Research and Energy Committee (ITRE) and a substitute Member of the Committee on Economic and Monetary affairs (ECON).

Pierre Moscovici – European Commissioner for Economic and Financial Affairs, Taxation and Customs

Pierre Moscovici is the Commissioner for Economic and Financial Affairs, Taxation and Customs. Before his designation, he served in the European Parliament and in the French National Assembly, mainly working on economic issues. He has been Minister for European Affairs (1997-2002) and Minister for the Economy and Finance (2012-2014) in France. As Commissioner, he is in charge of the application of the Stability and Growth Pact, as well as ensuring the economic soundness of Commission proposals and deepening the Economic and Monetary Union to create the conditions for jobs, growth and investment, and encouraging further structural reforms. On taxation matters, Commissioner Moscovici is responsible for developing a value added tax system at EU level, improving the functioning of the internal market in both direct and indirect taxation and fighting tax fraud and tax evasion. His responsibilities also include the development and management of an efficient EU customs union.